FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Buy Tickets Now for Select Centennial Events

Kindersley's 100th birthday celebrations are just two weeks away and events are already filling up. Tickets are now available for all events in which numbers are limited.

The Celebrations begin on Wednesday, July 21, 2010 and continue until Sunday, July 25, 2010. Get your tickets early for the July 25 Centennial Concert at Berard Field featuring Stereos, Codie Prevost, and Jeffery Straker. They are available for $55 from the Town Office, Lela's Music Centre, Cameron's Clothing Co. or online at www.kindersley.ca/stereos.

Tickets to the Homecoming Dine and Dance are also available at the Town Office for $20.

Pre-booking is required for the RM Bus Tours and Addison Sod House Tours. This can be done at Kelly Insurance Brokers. Pre-registration is not required for the Heritage Walking Tours on July 21 and 22, but complete walking tour guides are available for sale at the Town Office and other locations.

Booking for the Flying Tours can be done at the Town Office.

Admission to the Kindersley Players theatre performances, July 21, 22, and 23 is by rush seating only.

To register a float in the Centennial Parade, contact the Kindersley Chamber of Commerce Office at (306) 463-2320.

Visit the Town of Kindersley website at www.kindersley.ca/centennial for full details on all the events planned, plus a printable schedule.

Join us for the biggest and best celebration Kindersley has ever seen, July 21-25, 2010.
